

Instructor: ..... Date: .....

Learner: ..... Regional Branch: .....

Program: ..... Center: .....

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

I want to go on a vacation ... Can I have some time off?

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about travel.
- I can show interest and surprise.
- I can ask follow-up questions.

Ask your partner:

- When was your last vacation?
- Where did you go?
- What did you do?

Let's Explore!

Sally asks her boss*, Sasha, something. What is it?

* The "boss" is the person at work who has power to make decisions.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Hi, Sasha. How is the store today?
Sasha: It's a little slow today. How are you?
Sally: Great!
Sasha: You seem like you're in a good mood. What is it?
Sally: I'm excited, but I'm also a little nervous.
Sasha: Mmhmm?
Sally: Well, I have to ask you something ...
Sasha: Ask me something? What is it?
Sally: I want to take some time off from work next month.
Sasha: Time off? You just started this job!
Sally: I know, but I want to go on a vacation.
Sasha: Where to?
Sally: Maybe Mexico. My friend, Vanessa, is thinking of going.
Sasha: Maybe I can give you a week off because you helped me at Comic Con.
Sally: Really? Wow! Thanks!
Sasha: Let's talk about it later ... we have a customer.
Sally: Sounds good!

Let's Practice!

I'm thinking of going on a vacation. But first, practice your speaking!

Instructions: Read the sentences aloud.

1. I want to take some time off from work next month.
2. I want to go on a vacation.
3. Where to?
4. Maybe Mexico.
5. My friend, Vanessa, is thinking of going.

Let's Practice!

You seem like you're in a good mood. Try these questions ...

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each dialogue has 1 mistake.

1. Well, I have to ask you something. Me ask something? What is it?
2. I want to take some time off. Off time?

Extension Activity

You have to ask your boss for time off. Read the role cards and practice.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Read each role and choose one.
- Practice the situation with your partner.
- Switch roles.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I ask for time off.

☐
☐

I respond to requests using follow-up questions.

☐
☐

I show surprise and interest.

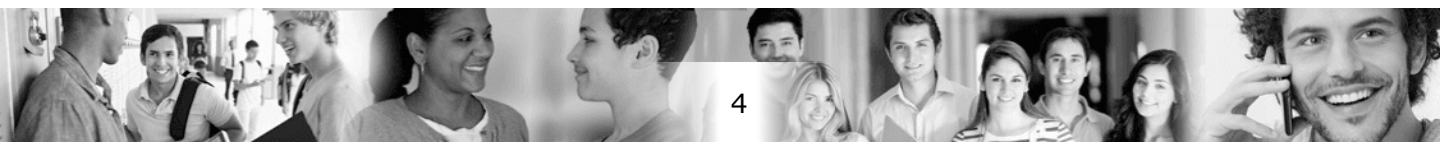

☐
☐

|                |                                                                                                                                               |
|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Role 1: | You are the boss. The clerk asks you for time off for a vacation. You are surprised and interested in what they say. Ask follow-up questions. |
| Role 2: | You are the clerk. You want to go on a vacation. Ask your boss for time off. Answer their questions.                                          |

Target Words

- vacation (noun): a period of free time
e.g. I need a vacation. I'm tired.
- a little slow (expression): use this to describe a store with a few customers
e.g. Sally: How is the store today?
Sasha: It's a little slow.
- in a good mood (expression): use this to say that a person is happy e.g. You seem like you're in a good mood.
- time off (expression): time away from work or school e.g. I want to take time off work.
- a week off (expression): one week away from work or school
e.g. I want to take a week off.
- really (expression): use this to express surprise
e.g. Sally: I want to take a week off.
Sasha: Really?!

Learning Points

Asking Follow-up Questions (Showing Interest and Surprise)

For showing interest and surprise in conversations you can use some verbs with infinitives such as want to and like to. Also in conversations you can ask short questions about something that someone has just said.

Follow-up Questions:

You use follow-up questions when you want to encourage someone to talk more, or to show you are interested or surprised about something.

A follow-up question can start with a Wh-question, like What, Where, When, Why or Who. When you hear something new, you can show you are surprised.

| Showing Interest                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Showing Surprise                                                                                                                                                          |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Leah: I want to go on vacation. Carol: Where to? Leah: I want to ask you something. Chris: *Ask me something? What is it? *You can also use Mmhmm to show that you are interested. | Mike: I want to take some time off from work. Jay: Time off?  You can also use Really? to show you are surprised. |
| Some other examples of follow-up questions are: When do you leave? What was it like? Who did you go with? Why is that? How was it? What did you see?                                            | You can also use these phrases to show surprise: Wow! No way! Oh my gosh! Get out of here! Really?!  |