Learning Points

Saying What You Want and Would Like To Do

You use the verbs want and would like/love to talk about things you are interested in doing.

You use these verbs with an Infinitive (to + verb).

"Want" is much stronger than "would like". It is more polite to use "would like/love".

Examples:

- I want to go on a vacation.
- I would like to practice my Spanish.
- I'd love to visit beaches.
