Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies and preferences in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Where did you go on your last trip?
- What did you do on that trip? What did you eat?
- What did you see that was very special to you?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about travel.
- I can talk about past experiences.
- I can say what I want to do or would like to do.
- I can show interest and surprise.
- I can make and respond to suggestions, offers and requests.

Let's Explore!

John and Peter talk about Vanessa's travel plans. What does John suggest?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: So, John. What do you think of Vanessa's travel plans?
John: Sounds like fun! She called the hotel in Mexico and inquired about their room rates.
Peter: Really?
John: Yeah, it's $80 per night for a single room.
Peter: Sounds good! What is she going to do in Mexico?
John: Visit the beaches, go surfing ...
Peter: Surfing? Wow ... who knew?
John: I'd love to go to Mexico, too! I like the beach.
Peter: Mhm. I prefer the mountains. I want to go hiking.
John: How about buying another lottery ticket?
Peter: I'm thinking about it ...
John: You can give it to me this time!
Peter: You're crazy! I gave it to Sally and she won! I'm going to keep my ticket.
John: Well, could you buy me one?
Peter: Sure, no problem.

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about

- a. finished time.
- b. finished events (before now).
- c. specific time (before now).

Some verbs are irregular. You have to remember the form of the Past tense of these verbs.

Some examples are:

Affirmative Form	Negative Form	Question Form
gave	didn't give	did (you) give?
won	didn't win	did (you) win?
ate	didn't eat	did (you) eat?
drank	didn't drink	did (you) drink?

Examples:

- I gave Sally my ticket and she won!
- Did Peter give the ticket to Sally?

Showing Surprise

You use these phrases to show surprise:

Polite	Casual
My goodness!	Oh my gosh!
Wow!	Really?
That's surprising!	Who knew?
Really?	Crazy!
	No way!

Examples:

- Peter: Surfing? Wow ... who knew?
