Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Vanessa goes shopping. What is she looking for?

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about shopping.
- I can make a shopping list.
- I can express a goal or a purpose.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to buy shoes? Why or why not?
- How often do you buy shoes?
- What kind of shoes do you like?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Sally are looking for shoes. Which ones do they choose?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Where is that list of yours?
Vanessa: I really have to get some new shoes. These ones are uncomfortable.
Sally: Well, buy some new ones. You need to be comfortable on your trip.
Vanessa: Hey, let's check in here. There are some on special.
Sally: Hey, those sandals look great on you! Why don't you get them?
Vanessa: Maybe. How about these flip-flops? They come in pink!
Sally: They're tacky, Vanessa. How about black or white?
Vanessa: Hmmmm ... The brown sandals with the straps then. What do you think?
Sally: Perfect!
Clerk: Welcome to Sassy's. If you buy two pairs, I'm going to give you a discount. We are having a sale.
Vanessa: I am getting the sandals and the pink flip flops. How much is that?
Sally: Oh Vanessa ... I can't take you anywhere. What's next on the list?

Let's Practice!

Help Vanessa with her shopping list. What does she need to get? What doesn't she need?

Instructions: Select all the words that are NOT included in a 'to do' list for around the house.

wash the dog
clean the windows
do the laundry
sunglasses
water the garden

Learning Points

Prefixes

A prefix is placed at the beginning of a word to change its meaning. For example, when the prefix un- is added to the word happy, it creates the word unhappy. Here are some examples:

Prefix	Meaning	Example
un-	not or reverse	uncomfortable
ex-	out	exterior
in-	towards	influence
over-	completely or 'over the top'	overconfident
re-	again	repaint

Examples:

- These shoes are uncomfortable.
- Where is the exit?
- Her boss has a lot of influence.
- Don't be overconfident!
- I have to repaint my apartment.
