Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense Pronunciation

In Simple Past, in affirmative form, the regular verbs have -ed endings. Regular past tense verbs (-ed ending) are pronounced three different ways:

- t
- d
- id

When a word that ends in a consonant is followed by a word that begins with a vowel, the words are linked. When this happens with words ending in "-ed", the "-ed" is pronounced clearly.

If the base verb ends in one of these sounds	Example base verb	Example with -ed	Pronounce the -ed as	extra syllable?
/t/	want visit	wanted visited	id	yes
/d/	end need	ended needed	id	yes
unvoiced	work laugh	worked laughed	t	no
voiced	play beg	played begged	d	no
